

Carol Hobson-Bennett

Don't let that double barrelled name fool you. Carol is from Yorkshire, down to earth and calls a spade a shovel.

She is pragmatic and keeps us in order when we go off waffling at tangents in committee meetings.

At present, she is studying a RHS Course in Horticulture, so if you have a question, ask her and if she doesn't know the answer, she'll definitely know someone who does.