

The Following magazines can be found on the Library Shelf in the Big Shed and are regularly updated

“Allotment” is the quarterly magazine of the National Association of Allotments.

Informative interesting read on current topics affecting plot holders

“The Garden” is the monthly magazine of the Royal Horticultural Society.

Articles include general gardening topics as well as items that will resonate with anyone with green fingers